1.3.4: Assignment and Binding Effect. You may not sell, assign, or transfer the Card Agreement or your Card Account or any portion thereof without the express prior written consent of the Bank. 1.4: AMENDMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT: The Bank may amend this Agreement by changing, adding or deleting any term, condition, service or feature ("New Term") of your Account or of this Agreement at any time. The Bank will provide you with notice of the amendment to the extent required by law. Unless we state otherwise, any New Term may apply only to new activity on your account. If the amendment includes any change for which we need your consent, we will obtain your consent before that New Term becomes effective. If we need to do so, we may obtain your consent in any one or more of the following ways: (a) by your usage of the Account after we give you notice of the amendment; (b) by your failure to write us on time if we request that you write us to reject a New Term; or (c) by your affirmative agreement which may be obtained verbally, in writing or electronically.

1.4.1: If you do not agree to the Amendment. You must notify the Bank in the manner provided with the amendment within 25 days after the effective date of the change, and the Bank may close your Card Account and may elect to have you pay the Outstanding Balance as provided by law. 1.5: CREDIT LIMIT: The Credit Limit on your Card Account is disclosed on each monthly statement (your initial Credit Limit appears on the folder containing the Card). You agree not to use or allow anyone else to use the Card or your Card Account in any way that would cause the Outstanding Balance to exceed your Credit Limit. You are liable for the Outstanding Balance even if it exceeds your Credit Limit. The Bank may increase or decrease your Credit Limit at any time and will notify you of such change. In addition, you may request a change in your Credit Limit by writing to the address shown on your monthly statement or by calling 503-548-1000 during business hours (8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time, Monday through Friday).

2.0: THE CARD:

2.1: Signature Panel. For your protection, the back of the Card contains a signature panel which should be signed before the Card is used.

2.2: Card is Bank Property. The Card is the property of the Bank and must be returned to the Bank if the Bank so requests. Also, the Bank can at any time and without cause and without notice, revoke the right to use the Card. If a merchant or a financial institution where the Card is attempted to be used asks for the surrender of the Card, it must be surrendered immediately.

2.3: Expiration. The Card will not be valid after the expiration date printed on the front of the Card and it must not be used after that date.

2.4: Renewal and Replacement Cards. The Bank will continue to issue renewal or replacement Cards until the Bank revokes the right to use the Card or until your Card Account is closed.

2.5: Additional Cards. You may request additional Cards at no additional cost for members of your family or for others you authorize to use your Card Account. However, you are responsible for all charges to your Card Account made by such persons.

3.0: AVAILABLE TRANSACTIONS: Subject to the restrictions described herein, card network rules and the law, the Card and your Card Account may be used in any of the following transactions:

3.1: Purchases. The Card may be used to purchase or lease goods or services wherever the Card is honored.

3.2: Cash Advances. Subject to your available Credit Limit, the Card may be used to obtain cash advances from your Card Account (1) in person at the Bank or any participating financial institution or (2) at any ATM in the Bank network or any of the other participating ATM networks (the names of which are shown on the back of the Card), subject to the following limitation (certain ATMs may have other limits): the total dollar amount of such ATM cash advances plus all cash withdrawal electronic fund transfers made during any calendar day (from midnight to midnight) may not exceed $500 for each card issued with your Card Account number. Cash advances may not exceed the lesser of your available credit or at our option $5,000 for any single advance. Each cash advance will create a charge to your Card Account.

3.3: Electronic Online Cash Advances: Subject to your available Credit Limit, the Card may be used to obtain electronic online cash advances from your Card Account. Based on risk, we reserve the right to limit electronic online cash advance access at the sole discretion of the Bank. Each electronic online cash advance will be treated as a cash advance subject to a Cash Advance Transaction Fee charged to your Card Account.

3.4: Internet Transactions: If your card is a Visa branded card, enrollment in the Verified by Visa program is required after 3 internet purchases. If your card is MasterCard branded, enrollment in MasterCard SecureCode program is required after 3 internet purchases. In order to make transactions over the Internet merchants may request your Verified by Visa or MasterCard SecureCode password to complete the transaction. If a password is not provided the merchant may deny the transaction. If the password is incorrect we may deny the transaction. By allowing another to use your Verified by Visa password or MasterCard SecureCode password you are authorizing the transaction on your account.

3.5: No Illegal use: OFAC Sanctions; Internet Gambling Prohibited: You must not use your Account, Card or Credit Card Checks (a) for any illegal purpose; (b) for any transaction or in any manner that violates the law; (c) to conduct transactions in any country or territory, or with any individual or entity, that is subject to economic sanctions administered and enforced by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC); or (d) to gamble on the Internet. Restricted transactions as defined in Federal Reserve Regulation GG are prohibited from being processed through this account or relationship. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation by others in unlawful Internet gambling. We have elected to not offer accounts to organizations that offer or sponsor Internet gambling. Commercial accounts receiving or processing Internet gambling transactions are subject to closure.

4.0: MONTHLY STATEMENTS: The Bank will send you (or one of you) a monthly statement summarizing each transaction on your Card Account during the preceding billing period. Your monthly statement will show the total amount you owe as of the end of the billing period, including any finance charges, fees, the minimum payment due and the payment due date, which date is at least 25 days from the monthly statement closing date. It also shows your current Credit Limit. The Bank will mail or deliver your monthly statement to only one address. Preservation of your rights under federal law regarding resolution of billing errors depends upon your timely recognition of potential errors, as explained in "Billing Rights Summary" notice at the end of this Agreement.

5.0: HOW THE NEW BALANCE IS DETERMINED: The total amount that you owe the Bank at the end of the current billing period appears as the "New Balance" on the monthly statement. The Outstanding Balance at the end of the previous billing period is called the "Previous Balance". The New Balance is determined by taking the Previous Balance and (1) subtracting any payments and credits received by the Bank during the current billing period and then (2) adding any purchases, cash advances, finance charges, fees, and, other adjustments.

6.0: PAYMENTS: You promise to pay the Bank according to the terms of this Agreement the entire amount owing hereunder. You agree to make all payments in U.S. Dollars drawn on funds on deposit in the United States (however, the Bank may at its option choose to accept payments made in foreign currency or made by drawing on funds on deposit outside the United States, in which case you agree to pay all conversion fees and bank collection fees incurred by the Bank, which amounts will be treated as purchase items). Do not send cash payments.

6.1: Payment Due Date. The payment due date on your Account will be the same date each month and your payment will be due by 5:00 p.m. in the manner and location specified on your billing statement.

6.2: Amount of Minimum Payment. If the New Balance is less than $25, the minimum payment is the full amount of the New Balance. The minimum payment due each month is 1.5% of the New Balance or $25 whichever is greater. You shall make (and the Bank shall have received at the address designated on your monthly statement) on or before 5:00 p.m. on the due date the minimum payment shown on your monthly statement (or, at your option, any greater amount up to the Outstanding Balance). Receipt of your minimum payment at any address other than that designated on your monthly statement may create a delay in posting the minimum payment to your Card Account and may thereby result in a late fee and additional finance charges. Making only the minimum payment will increase the amount of interest you pay and the time it takes to repay your balance.

6.3: Application of Payments. The amount of payments credited to your Account during a billing period will be applied first to unpaid finance charges, then to any miscellaneous fees, then to the balance having the highest APR, and then to each successive balance bearing the next higher APR until the payment is exhausted. Balances having the same APR will be paid beginning with the oldest balance first. Payment for more than the minimum payment amount (but not more than the Outstanding Balance) will be accepted as a single payment for that billing period; the amount in excess of the minimum payment will not be applied toward future payments due.

6.4: Acceptance of Partial or Nonconforming Payments. The Bank may accept late payments, partial payments or any payment marked with any kind of restrictive endorsement (such as "paid in full" or "in settlement") without giving effect to the restrictive endorsement and without losing, waiving, or impairing any of the Bank's rights under this Agreement or under applicable law.

6.5: Delay of Available Credit: We credit payments to your account on the day we receive them however, we reserve the right, based on risk, to delay the available credit resulting from those payments.

6.6: Prepayment. You may repay all or any portion of the Outstanding Balance at any time without penalty.

7.0: DEFAULT: If the minimum payment is not received at the proper address on or before the payment due date, or if you fail to honor any other obligation under this Agreement, or if you die, file for bankruptcy, or become insolvent or generally unable to pay your debts, or if you have furnished false or misleading information on the Card Application, or if you are in default under any other obligations you may owe to the Bank, or if the Bank reasonably believes that you are unable or unwilling to honor all of your obligations under this Agreement, the Bank may declare the Outstanding Balance immediately due and payable, may close your Card Account, and recover the Card.

8.0: ATTORNEYS FEES; COLLECTION EXPENSES; VENUE IN OREGON. You agree to pay our reasonable collection expenses, whether or not any court or arbitration proceedings are filed. Collection expenses include reasonable attorneys fees, the cost of Bank staff (including in house counsel), and out of pocket expenses (whether or not such expenses are awardable as “court costs”). Unless prohibited by law, you agree that we may bring legal action against you in the State of Oregon, regardless of where you reside.

9.0: FINANCE CHARGES: All cash advances and purchases are subject to interest charges from the date they are added to your Account until paid. If you pay in full by the payment due date (which is at least 25 days from the monthly statement closing date), you pay cash advance fees and interest charges only on the cash advances added during the billing cycle. The finance charge shown on your monthly statement will be the total of cash advance fees and interest charges. The following finance charges will apply whether before or after default, judgment, or the closing of your Card Account.

9.1: Interest Charges, Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (APR): The amount of interest charges will be derived by multiplying your average daily balances by a periodic rate. The periodic rate for Visa Platinum is 1.17% (corresponding APR is 14.04%). The periodic rate is 1/12th of the APR.

9.2: Average Daily Balance Method (including current transactions): We figure a portion of the finance charge on your Account by applying the periodic rate to the “average daily balances” of your Account (including current transactions) for purchases and cash advances. To get the “average daily balances” we take the beginning balances of your Account each day, add any new purchases, advances or other charges, and subtract any payments or credits, and unpaid late fees or finance charges. This gives us the daily balances. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the “average daily balance” for purchases and cash advances. If you pay all of the new balance shown on your statement by the payment due date, we will exclude that balance and all new charges to the account except cash advances from the daily balances.

9.3: Balance Subject to Finance Charge: The balance subject to finance charge is made up of your average daily balances plus your new advances (we will not include the amount of the new advances more than once in a balance.)

9.4: Minimum Finance Charge. There is no minimum finance charge.

9.5: Military Lending Act (MLA). The Military Lending Act provides protections for members of the Armed forces and their dependents.

9.5.1: Statement of MAPR (Military Annual Percentage Rate). Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).

9.5.2: Oral Disclosures. Before accepting this Agreement, in order to hear important disclosures and payment information about this Agreement, you may contact us at 1-844-210-3601.

9.5.3: Applicability of Dispute Resolution Provision. The Jury Waiver, Class Action Waiver, and Arbitration Agreement in the Dispute Resolution Provision set forth in this Agreement do not apply to those covered under the MLA.

10.0: CASH ADVANCE FEE: Each new cash advance (including ATM cash advances) will be assessed a fee that is 1% of the amount of each cash advance and added to the balance of the transaction.

11.0: OTHER FEES AND CHARGES:

11.1: Annual Fee for Visa Platinum: A non-refundable $25.00 annual fee for each account you have with us will begin on the 12th month after your account is opened and charged annually thereafter.

11.2: Late Payment Fee: If the minimum payment shown on your monthly statement is not received at the proper address by the fifth day following the payment due date, there will be a late fee of $10.00 if balance is over $100.00 and is past due 5 days.

11.3: Returned Payment Fee: If any check or other payment on your Card Account is dishonored or must be returned because it cannot be processed, there will be a returned payment fee of $20.00. This fee is charged to your account as a purchase item.

11.4: International Transaction Fee. 1% of the U.S. dollar amount of the transaction. If you incur a charge in a foreign currency, the charge will be converted into a U.S. Dollar amount by Visa International. Currently, the currency conversion rate used is either a wholesale market rate or a government mandated rate in effect one day prior to the date the transaction is processed by Visa International plus three percent (3%) of the U.S. dollar rate. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date. This charge is in addition to the Banks usual ATM fee.

12.0: SECURITY INTEREST FOR SECURED ACCOUNTS. If you have a Secured Account, you have given the Bank a security interest in a savings account at the Bank to secure payment of your Card Account. If you withdraw your funds from the savings account, the Bank has the right to close your Card Account.

13.0: JOINT ACCOUNT. If your Card Account is in the name of more than one person, each and every such person shall be jointly and severally liable for the full Outstanding Balance, including without limitation any amount in excess of your Credit Limit. In addition, except as otherwise required by applicable law, you agree that all monthly statements and notices regarding your Card Account may be sent to any one of you.

14.2: Headings. The headings used in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall have no bearing on the interpretation of this Agreement.

20.0: FINANCIAL AND CREDIT INFORMATION:

20.1: Financial Statements. The Bank may need updated financial information from you at some time in the future. If the Bank asks, you agree to furnish a current financial statement or to update the Card Application.

20.2: Credit Reports. You hereby authorize the Bank to make whatever credit inquiries or investigations about you that the Bank deems appropriate and to disclose to others credit information about your Card Account and your performance under this Agreement. The Bank may ask credit bureaus for reports of your credit history; at your request, the Bank will tell you whether or not the Bank has requested such reports and will tell you the names and addresses of the credit bureaus furnishing the reports.

20.3: Negative Credit Reporting. You are hereby notified that we may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

20.4: Notify us of inaccurate information we report to credit bureaus. Please notify us if we report any inaccurate information about your account(s) to a credit bureau. Your written notice describing the specific inaccuracy should be sent to us at the following address: Zions Bancorporation, N.A. dba The Commerce Bank of Oregon, 1211 SW 5th Ave., Ste 1250, Portland, OR 97204

When your Card Account is closed (whether by you or the Bank); your right to use the Card and to make charges to the Card Account will be automatically revoked. Termination does not excuse your obligation to pay us.

23.0: BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY: This notice contains important information about your rights and the Bank's responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

23.1: Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill. If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us in a separate letter at the address indicated in the Billing Rights Summary on your Statement. Write us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, include the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The date and dollar amount of the suspected error.

- Describe the error, and explain if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

You must contact us at least three business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

23.2: Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice. We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill you will not have to pay the amount in question or any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay the amount in question or finance charges, and you will have to make any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten (10) days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

23.3: Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases: If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with the Card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right:

- (1) You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
- (2) The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if the Bank owns or operates the merchant, or if the Bank mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

24.0: DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVISION. This Dispute Resolution Provision contains a jury waiver, a class action waiver, and an arbitration agreement (or judicial reference agreement, as applicable), set out in four Sections. READ IT CAREFULLY. The Jury waiver, class action waiver, and arbitration agreement in this Dispute Resolution provision do not apply to you if, as of the date of this agreement, you are a member of the Armed Forces or a dependent of such member entitled to protection under the Federal Military Lending Act.

SECTION 1: GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING ALL DISPUTES:

24.1.1: PRIOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION AGREEMENTS SUPERSEDED. This Dispute Resolution Provision shall supersede and replace any prior "Jury Waiver," "Judicial Reference," "Class Action Waiver," "Arbitration," "Dispute Resolution," or similar alternative dispute agreement or provision between or among the parties.

24.1.2: "DISPUTE" DEFINED. As used herein, the word "Dispute" includes, without limitation, any claim by either party against the other party related to this Agreement, your Card or Account. In addition, "Dispute" also includes any claim by either party against the other party regarding any other agreement or business relationship between any of them, whether or not related to the Loan or other subject matter of this Agreement. "Dispute" includes, but is not limited to, matters arising from or relating to a deposit account, an application for or denial of credit, warranties and representations made by a party, the adequacy of a party's disclosures, enforcement of any and all of the obligations a party hereto may have to another party, compliance with applicable laws and/or regulations, performance or services provided under any agreement by a party, including without limitation disputes based on or arising from any alleged tort or matters involving the employees, officers, agents, affiliates, or assigns of a party hereto.

If a third party is a party to a Dispute (such as a credit reporting agency, merchant accepting a credit card, junior lienholder or title company), each party hereto agrees to consent to including that third party in any arbitration or judicial reference proceeding for resolving the Dispute with that third party.

24.1.3: JURY WAIVER. Each party waives its, his or her respective rights to a trial before a jury in connection with any Dispute. All Disputes shall be decided by a judge sitting without a jury, unless submitted to binding arbitration pursuant to Section 2 or judicial reference pursuant to Section 3.

This Agreement includes an arbitration agreement, which will have a substantial effect on your rights in the event of a dispute with us. For example, if we elect to require you to arbitrate any claim, you will not have the right to a jury trial or the right to participate in a class action in court or in arbitration. However, the arbitration agreement does not apply if, as of the date of this agreement, you are a member of the armed forces or a dependent of such member covered by the Federal Military Lending Act. Please see the section of this agreement labeled "Military Lending Act."

In any lawsuit regarding a Dispute (a "Lawsuit"), following the service of a complaint, third-party complaint, cross-claim or counterclaim or any answer thereto, any amendment to any of the above, or a ruling or entry of an order that has the effect of invalidating jury trial waiver (any of the foregoing, an "ADR Event"), then at any time prior to trial of the Dispute, but not later than 30 days after the ADR Event, any party shall be entitled to move the court for an order, as applicable: (A) compelling arbitration and staying or dismissing the Lawsuit pending arbitration ("Arbitration Order") under Section 2 hereof, or (B) staying the Lawsuit and compelling judicial reference under Section 3 hereof. Each party agrees that a party that commenced or participated in the Lawsuit may demand arbitration of a Dispute after an ADR Event, and that the commencement or participation in the Lawsuit shall not operate as a waiver of the right to compel arbitration. After entry of an Arbitration Order, the non-moving party shall commence arbitration. The moving party shall, at its discretion, also be entitled to commence arbitration but is under no obligation to do so, and the moving party shall not in any way be adversely prejudiced by electing not to commence arbitration.

24.1.4: CLASS ACTION WAIVER. If permitted by applicable law, each party waives the right to litigate any Dispute as a class action (either as a member of a class or as a representative) or to act as a private attorney general. The waiver in this paragraph applies whether the proceeding is in a court, in an arbitration, or in a judicial reference proceeding.

24.1.5: SURVIVAL: This Dispute Resolution Provision shall survive any termination, amendment, or expiration of this Agreement, or any other relationship between the parties.

SECTION 2: AGREEMENT TO SUBMIT TO BINDING ARBITRATION (EXCEPT CALIFORNIA). This Section 2 is an agreement to submit to binding arbitration of any Dispute between the parties.

This Section 2 shall not, however, apply to any Dispute pending in a state or federal court located in the State of California, except to the extent such Dispute may also be pending in a state or federal court located outside of California.

Each party agrees that it, he or she shall have the right, but no obligation, to require any Dispute between the parties be resolved by arbitration. An arbitrator shall have no authority to determine matters (i) regarding the validity, enforceability, meaning, or scope of this Dispute Resolution Provision, or (ii) class action claims brought by either party as a class representative on behalf of others and claims by a class representative on either party's behalf as a class member, which matters may be determined only by a court without a jury. BY AGREEING TO RESOLVE FUTURE DISPUTES IN ARBITRATION, THE PARTIES ARE WAIVING THEIR RIGHT TO LITIGATE IN COURT.

Arbitration under this provision shall be conducted before a single arbitrator through either the National Arbitration Forum ("NAF") or Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service, Inc. (JAMS), as selected by the initiating party, in accordance with the rules of NAF or JAMS (the "Administrator"). However, if the parties agree, a licensed attorney may be selected by the parties to conduct the arbitration without an Administrator. If NAF and JAMS both decline to administer arbitration of the Dispute, and if the parties are unable to mutually agree upon a licensed attorney to act as arbitrator without an Administrator, then either party may file a Lawsuit and move for an Arbitration Order. The arbitrator, howsoever appointed, shall have expertise in the subject matter of the Dispute. Venue for the arbitration proceeding shall be as stated elsewhere in this Agreement with respect to any judicial proceedings between the parties. Absent such a provision, the arbitration shall be conducted at a location determined by mutual agreement of the parties or by the Administrator if no agreement can be reached. The arbitrator shall apply the law of the state specified in the agreement giving rise to the Dispute.

In any arbitration commenced by a consumer regarding a consumer Dispute, Lender or Bank shall pay one half of the Administrator's initial filing fee, up to $500. If Lender or Bank commences arbitration or is the moving party obtaining an Arbitration Order, Lender or Bank shall pay all Administrator and arbitrator fees, regardless of whether or not the consumer is the prevailing party in such arbitration, unless such Dispute involves a claim for damages by a consumer and is found by the arbitrator to be frivolous. For this paragraph, "consumer Dispute" shall mean a Dispute involving credit or services provided by Lender or Bank, primarily for personal, family or household purposes, in which the claim for damages is less than $75,000.

The Administrator and the arbitrator shall have the authority, to the extent practicable, to take any reasonable action to require the arbitration proceeding to be completed within 180 days of commencing the arbitration. The arbitrator: (i) will render a decision and any award applying applicable law; (ii) will hear and rule on appropriate dispositive motions for judgment on the pleadings, for failure to state a claim, or for full or partial summary judgment; (iii) will give effect to any statutory or contractual limitations period (e.g., any statute of limitations) in determining any Dispute or defense; (iv) shall have the authority to impose sanctions on any party that fails to comply with time periods imposed by the Administrator or the arbitrator, including, without limitation, the sanction of entering a final award against the party that fails to comply; (v) shall have authority to award costs and fees (including attorneys' fees and costs, arbitration administration fees and costs, and arbitrator(s)' fees) to the extent permitted by law; (vi) shall recognize and honor claims of privilege recognized at law; and (vii) with regard to motions and the arbitration hearing, shall apply the Federal Rules of Evidence. The doctrines of compulsory counterclaim, res judicata, and collateral estoppel shall apply to any arbitration proceeding hereunder.

Commencement of an arbitration by any party shall not prevent any party from at any time (i) seeking and obtaining from a court of competent jurisdiction (notwithstanding ongoing arbitration) provisional or ancillary remedies including but not limited to injunctive relief, temporary restraining orders, property preservation orders, foreclosure, sequestration, eviction, attachment, replevin, garnishment, and/or the appointment of a receiver; or (ii) availing itself of any self-help remedies such as setoff and repossession rights or non-judicial foreclosure of collateral. The exercise of such rights shall not constitute a waiver of the right to submit any Dispute to arbitration.

Judgment upon an arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction except that, if the arbitration award exceeds $200,000, any party shall be entitled to a de novo appeal of the award before a panel of three arbitrators. To allow for such appeal, if the award (including Administrator, arbitrator, and attorney's fees and costs) exceeds $200,000, the arbitrator will issue a written, reasoned decision supporting the award, including a statement of authority and its application to the Dispute. A request for de novo appeal must be filed with the arbitrator within 30 days following the date of the arbitration award; if such a request is not made within that time period, the arbitration award shall become final and binding. On appeal, the arbitrators shall review the award de novo, meaning that they shall reach their own findings of fact and conclusions of law rather than deferring in any manner to the original arbitrator. Appeal of an arbitration award shall be pursuant to the rules of the Administrator; if the Administrator has no such rules, then the JAMS arbitration appellate rules shall apply.

To request information on how to submit an arbitration claim, or to request a copy of an Administrator's rules or fee schedule, please contact the Administrators as follows: JAMS: 1920 Main St., Suite 300, Irvine, CA 92614, Phone: (949) 224-1810, Fax: (949) 224-1818, E-mail: info@jamsadr.com, Website: www.jamsadr.com; NAF: National Arbitration Forum, P.O. Box 50191, Minneapolis, MN 55405-0191, Phone (800) 474-2371, E-Mail: info@adrforum.com, Website: www.adrforum.com.

Arbitration under this provision concerns a transaction involving interstate commerce and shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. If the terms of this Section 2 vary from the Administrator's rules, this Section 2 shall control.

SECTION 3: JUDICIAL REFERENCE (CALIFORNIA ONLY). If a Dispute between the parties hereto is filed in a state or federal court located in the State of California, each party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to require that it be resolved by judicial reference in accordance with California Code of Civil Procedure, Sections 638, et seq. BY AGREEING TO RESOLVE DISPUTES BY JUDICIAL REFERENCE, EACH PARTY IS GIVING UP ANY RIGHT THAT PARTY MAY HAVE TO A JURY TRIAL. The referee shall be a retired judge, agreed upon by the parties, from either the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service, Inc. (JAMS). If the parties cannot agree on the referee, the party who initially selected the reference procedure shall request a panel of ten retired judges from either AAA or JAMS, and the court shall select the referee from that panel. If AAA and JAMS are unavailable to provide this service, the court may select a referee by such other procedures as are used by that court. The referee shall be appointed to sit with all of the powers provided by law, including the power to hear and determine any or all of the issues in the proceeding, whether of fact or of law, and to report a statement of decision. Only for this Section 3, "Dispute" includes matters regarding the validity, enforceability, meaning, or scope of this Section, and class action claims brought by either party as a class representative on behalf of others and claims by a class representative on either party's behalf as a class member. The parties agree that time is of the essence in conducting the judicial reference proceeding set forth herein. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the costs of the judicial reference proceeding, including the fee for the court reporter, shall be borne equally by the parties as the costs are incurred, unless otherwise awarded by the referee. If Lender or Bank commences a judicial reference proceeding regarding a consumer Dispute, Lender or Bank shall pay all referee fees, regardless of whether or not the consumer is the prevailing party in such proceeding, unless such Dispute involves a claim for damages by a consumer and is found by the referee to be frivolous. For purposes of this paragraph, "consumer Dispute" shall mean a Dispute involving credit or services provided by Lender or Bank, primarily for personal, family or household purposes, in which the claim for damages is less than $75,000. The referee shall hear all pre-trial and post-trial matters (including without limitation requests for equitable relief), prepare a statement of decision with written findings of fact and conclusions of law and apportion costs as appropriate. The referee shall be empowered to enter equitable relief as well as legal relief, provide all temporary or provisional remedies, enter equitable orders that are binding on the parties and rule on any motion that would be authorized in a trial, including without limitation motions for summary adjudication. Judgment upon the award shall be entered in the court in which such proceeding was commenced and all parties shall have full rights of appeal. This provision will not be deemed to limit or constrain Lender's or Bank's right of offset, to obtain provisional or ancillary remedies, to interplead funds in the event of a dispute, to exercise any security interest or lien Bank or Lender may hold in property, or to comply with legal process involving accounts or other property held by Bank or Lender. Nothing herein shall preclude a party from moving (prior to the court ordering judicial reference) to dismiss, stay or transfer the suit to a forum outside California on grounds that California is an improper, inconvenient or less suitable venue. If such motion is granted, this Section 3 shall not apply to any proceedings in the new forum.

This Section 3 may be invoked only with regard to Disputes filed in state or federal courts located in the State of California. In no event shall the provisions in this Section 3 diminish the force or effect of any venue selection or jurisdiction provision in this Agreement or any Related Document.

SECTION 4: RELIANCE. Each party (i) certifies that no one has represented to such party that the other party would not seek to enforce a jury waiver, class action waiver, arbitration provision or judicial reference provision in the event of suit, and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other party have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, material reliance upon the mutual waivers, agreements, and certifications in the four Sections of this DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVISION.
